GRAND-DADDY JUKE BOX

CHICAGO, April 15 (P) - Imbibers at Eddie Michelson's tavern should be able to treat their listeners now to at least approximately the right pitch when the impulse to sing the inevitable old ballads overcomes them.

For a nickel, an impromptu quartette can even sit out such renditions as "The Curse of an Aching Heart," and "When You Wore a Tulip." Michelson has installed an old juke box built in 1885 which carries those and other long-time favorites in stock.

Monterey Peninsula Herald April 15, 1947 P11
