Page 16	Policy at Ford, that if they had docs regarding asbestos you had to give them to the office of general counsel, policy in effect in early 1990s.
Page 19	ford bought raw asbestos fibers starting in late 1960.
Page 20	Ford bought asbestos fibers for heating and air conditioning housing for ford vehicles. Phase out process started in late 1970's. Last year used asbestos fibers would have been shortly after phasing out began.
Page 23	Industrial Hygiene dept is where he worked. Has seen tests done from this dept.
Page 24	started with ford in 1973. Head of the dept was Paul Toth who retired in late 1980s. Successor was roger wabeke who is no longer with ford.
Page 27	Ford had inside OSHA dept to make sure they were in compliance with osha. Ford had Med director under him industrial hygiene, safety dept, and medical dept.
Page 28	Added epidemiologist and ergonomists. Toth was head of industrial hygiene. Bud Deary was head of safety. He retired in late 1970s replaced by Dale Gray.
page 29	Gray was head of safety until late 1990s. Med dept headed by drs and nurses and corp individuals to give guidance.
Page 30	safety dept function to keep workers safe. Industrial hygiene was corporate function and would evaluate potential physical or chemical hazards.
Page 31	safety engineers, education came from formal education and training courses.
Page 32	Head of med was Duane block. He left in 1987. Replaced by John Tribwasser.
page 33	Witness believes there has been worker comp claims filed from asbestos exposure.
Page 36	Ford belonged to Society of toxicology, american board of toxicology, board of industrial hygiene, american hygiene assoc., society of safety engineers.
Page 37	Industrial health foundation, society of automotive engineers.
Page 38	American medical ass., society of epidemiologists. Ford hired own epidemiologist. First one was Dave Sugano hired in mid 1970s. Worked under occupational health and safety dept in Ford.
Page 39	one epidemiologists was Gordon Reeve.