Mr. Hackenkamp
Attorney at Law
522 East Monroe Street
Springfield, Illinois 62701

Dear Mr. Hackenkamp:

I apologize to you for my not being able to put a proper handle on your name, but I found that I hadn't a single piece of paper on which your full name or that of your legal firm was spelled out.

I send you herewith (believing that you are the proper person to address) the account of my expenses and the charge which I make (to people who can afford a proper charge) for services as an expert witness. I do this at once simply for the reason that I don't wish to be bothered with doing it later not because there is any urgency about it otherwise.

Let me say again, as I did to you yesterday, that it is a pleasure to be associated with a man like yourself, who knows what to do with "expert" witnesses, and how to do it. It is to me a source of real dissatisfaction if I have reason to feel that I have wasted my time. At my stage of living, time is in too short supply to waste.

Cordially yours,

Robert A. Kehoe, M.D.
