That all sounds good.

I enjoy seeing (b) (6) when he's in town.

(b) (6) is a rising college junior. I think he's headed to law school eventually.

(b) (6) is doing ok. Still trying to keep me and (b) (6) in line.

Thanks,

Scott

He's still very much interested in being in DC. He misses it. He gets to D.C. about once a month to network and getting involved with local politics to find a path to getting back.

(b) (6) turned (b) (6) in March. 90% of the time she's more like me; however, when she negotiates for things or pleads her case (e.g., 10 more minutes till bedtime) she's totally (b) (6). She'll make a great diplomat someday ;)

(b) (6). I'll let you know as soon as it's planned.

I hope (b) (6) and (b) (6) are also doing well and wish you all a pleasant weekend!

Regards,
Jeanette

Good to hear from you, Jeanette.

Does (b) (6) still think of coming to D.C.?

I would love to see you next time you are in DC.

Hi Scott!

So nice to hear from you! I hope you are settling into your role with DOI nicely :)

I'm still with public sector working with mostly Federal clients and have my first commercial client. I still manage the NASA OHCM BPA and my primary client for the past 10 months has been NRCS (a workforce analysis project).

I'm a bit harder for GT public sector to staff these days due to the fact that I live in the Philly area (hence the commercial client in my portfolio).

I still get to D.C. here and there and would love to grab coffee on one of my next trips if your schedule permits. If I can ever help you with anything give a holler!

Warm regards,
Jeanette
