Dear Doctor Smith,

I am rather worried that I have had no reply to the letter which I sent to you on November 27th, 1964. I realize that there may be quite a number of reasons for this, including the Christmas holiday. However, just in case the letter went astray I am taking the liberty of enclosing a copy of what I wrote.

I have been wondering whether my request was in any way embarrassing to you; if so I do hope you will not hesitate to say so.

Yours sincerely,

J.C. McDonald, M.D.

Chairman.
