Governor Scott Recognizes VetCor with Governor's Business Ambassador Award

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, during a meeting of the Florida Cabinet, Governor Rick Scott recognized Tampa-based business VetCor with the Governor's Business Ambassador Award. VetCor is a restoration company specializing in water damage mitigation and is a veteran-owned business that currently employs 20 Florida veterans.

Governor Scott said, "I'm proud to recognize Paul with the Business Ambassador Award today. As a veteran myself, it's great to see a veteran owned business succeed here in Florida. We are thankful for Paul's service and will continue to ensure that Florida is the most veteran and military friendly state in the nation."

VetCor Owner Paul Huszar said, "I'm honored to be recognized by Governor Scott with the Business Ambassador Award. My team and I are proud to have served this great nation and be able to create meaningful and sustainable employment opportunities for other veterans who continue to serve and sustain a legacy of service. VetCor is a company with a cause, and a company on a mission."

The Governor's Business Ambassador Award is given to individuals and business in recognition of their efforts to create jobs and opportunities for Florida families. For more information about VetCor, visit www.vetcorservices.com.

VetCor is one of many businesses that have received assistance with hiring and training 10 employees through Veterans Florida's Employment and Training Services program.

Veterans Florida is a non-profit corporation created by the State of Florida to help veterans fully transition to civilian life in the Sunshine State. They connect veterans to employers, grant funds to employers to hire and train veterans, and educate veterans on how to open their own businesses in Florida.
