New York City, New York

Dear Mr. Gregg:

I am very much obliged for your letter of December 16 with reference to the annual amount still due on the Lead Fund. I note that you will take the matter up with those subscribers who have not yet made their remittances, so we may expect your remittance when you hear from them.

Thank you for your courtesy in this matter, I can assure you of the appreciation of the Medical School.

Mr. Henry S. Thompson, Secretary,
Harvard Medical School,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Dear Sir:

Mr. Tuttle of the American Institute of Lead Manufacturers has handed me your letter of December 8th.

It would appear from the fact that you have not received the full amount of $17,000. from all subscribers to the fund which several white lead manufacturers subscribe to your work that some one of the others has omitted to make remittance.

I will take this matter up with the other subscribers and think that within a very short time you will receive a remittance, or remittances, which will complete the fund.

Yours truly,

Norris B. Gregg

Vice President.

Charles F. Tuttle, Esq.,
American Institute of Lead Manufacturers,
90 West Street,
New York City, New York.

My dear Sir:

According to our records Harvard University has received but $15,658.86 toward the $17,000. promised this year for the investigation of lead poisoning.

If you find our figures to be correct may I ask that the balance due on this year be sent at your convenience?

Checks should be made payable to Charles F. Adams, Esq.,
Treasurer, 50 State Street, Boston, Massachusetts.

Very truly yours,

Secretary,
