Millan -

Thank you very much for your call earlier this week, and your ensuing email. I apologize for the brief call, but I'm actually out of the country on holiday this week and not sure what my phone plan allows so appreciate your understanding. Thank you.

I am cc'ing Ray Shepherd, VP Government Affairs for Peabody, who can speak better to the specifics of their facilities in Australia, their proposed mine tour and/or an executive briefing for Administrator Pruitt in Sydney, depending on logistics.

Thanks again for your time and consideration. We are excited about the possibility of a visit down under and look forward to working with you.

Thanks,
Scott

Scott,

Thank you for the return phone call. You indicated that Peabody would like to extend an invitation for the Administrator to visit a mine while in Sydney. We would love to gather a bit more info and determine a good time given our current schedule.

Look forward to chatting further,

Millan Hupp
Director of Scheduling and Advance
Office of the Administrator
