

Another Record Broken!

ANTONIO MARTINS
Free Pistol Champion of Portugal
at 50 Meters

*D*R. ANTONIO MARTINS, Free Pistol Champion of Portugal, has already demonstrated that he's going to be a hard man to beat when he lines up for the international contests at Stockholm this year.

During a recent shoot held by the National Federation of Sharpshooters—in preparation for the international events—Martins scored 538 points with free pistol from 50 meters. This brilliant performance broke the Portuguese National Record held by himself since November of last year and came within 2 points of the World's Record of 540 points, held by Van Asbroeck of Belgium since 1912.

Martins made this record score with U. S. .22 N. R. A.'s . . . the same cartridges he used in establishing his previous records and in winning the Portuguese Championship . . . the same cartridges he says he will use at Stockholm this year . . . the cartridges that are known the world over for their accuracy and absolute dependability.
