Mandy, we are long overdue for a get together. Well with all of you—we need to pick a time. Maybe post this meeting for some beverages ☺?!

I'll wait to hear what time is best. Thanks all. See you soon.

Troy—you are very special (and a little needy)

Troy – you are still very special.

Lisa! I can't wait to catch up and look forward to the discussion with John.

We would be happy to. I'll include Mandy your other actual favorite person to contribute too. We'll figure out the best time.

Hello!!! If it isn't two of my favorite people, EVER. Now that I've adequately flattered you..

John Crane, our oil and gas supplier division, is bring John Donatiello, VP of Global products to town September 27th. John has never really done the DC meeting tour with us and we would like to take him to all the places of interest. Of course, I thought of you both. Would you have time on the 27th to discuss the Methane re-proposal and the future of other rules and regulations you see coming? Really, just any issues you think he may find fascinating.

I included the link to John Crane below. We are the manufacturer of mechanical seals, suppling sealing device technology to oil and gas, chemical, water and other facilities.

Happy to discuss in further detail prior to the meeting. Please let me know a time that will work for you and we will do our best to accommodate.

Thank you, thank you!

Lisa
