Dear Dr. Kehoe:

I have withheld from writing you for some time in reply to Jack Bloomfield's letter of August 2 suggesting that the Directors send you recommendations on who should present the Donald E. Cummings Memorial Lecture.

It is my feeling that the choice of one or two people for this lecture should rest with this year's Program Chairman. I feel that any suggestion that I would make would only handicap your selection of a proper subject and speaker to present this lecture.

Very truly yours,

Wm. R. Bradley.
