PEEK-A-BOO PARAGRAPHS...
Television starts packing its bags now for some trips to various corners of America. The standbys by New York and Hollywood studios production will be known somewhat beginning this summer. You can expect more and more "pickups" of outstanding programs from here, there and everywhere. At least everywhere there's a station which can supply pictures to a network...
CBS-TV will be the mainstay of two color shows a week next season. Fall place at CBS also include 10 Saturday night 80-minute shows, a Lieberman...
Edith Green's absence from her tele-kitchen was short. Her "Menu Night" reappeared today at 1 p.m. Now on Channel 7, local scenes still have her potboiler...
Five Pacific Coast conference football games will be telecast on a regional basis next fall by CBS-TV...
Milton Berle's nine TV shows next season will be planned as individual productions, with a different format, writer, cast and production crew for each program. And maybe a different time slot...
Start of Arthur Godfrey's 10th year as a nighttime personality for CBS will be observed with a special summit, July 18. Including fireworks...
Arthur's sister, Kathy Godfrey, begins her own network radio show Sunday (KCBS, 11:55 a.m.)...
When Tennessee Ernie accepted an award from the governor of his home state, he could say "I'm a tall hog at the trough today..."

ONE of the special features which NBC is planning for its "Monitor" radio weekend is a snapshot department. It will broadcast seldom heard sounds, such as the moaning call of the giant tortoise, a worm turning, feeding time in an alligator pit, oysters laughing, termite assaulting a giant sequoia and a convention between two fish...
I understand the program's researchers have been unsuccessful thus far in their efforts to record the sound of a Hollywood "man" saying "no"...
Three television make-up men have opened a sideline business in Hollywood. Their firm will supply anyone with space body parts made of a special plastic. So, if you don't like the shape of your present nose or ears, you now know where to go...
SEYMOUR PALMISTON and John Castorano, who wrote "This Is Your Music" job ends on TV this week, take charge of radio's "On a Sunday Afternoon" when the program moves from New York to Hollywood this Sunday (KCBS, 2:05 p.m.)...
America's Town Meeting of the Air celebrates its 20th anniversary Sunday with an hour-long cavalcade of its two-decade history (KGO, 5 p.m.)...
Another birthday broadcast for Sunday is KCBS' "Invitation to Learning," topic for the 15th anniversary discussion is "Water: The Source of Life." "Imaginary Conversations"...
The Henry Youngman-Rocky Graham show, due for ABC-TV immediately following the "How to Succeed in Business" light (starting June 11) will not be carried locally by KGO-TV...
DONALD WOODS replaces Macdonald Carey as host for the "Woodworth Hour" broadcasts which begin June 5 (KCBS)...
Doug Pliester is confused by the talk about a guaranteed annual wage. After reading descriptions of the atomic tree, he'll settle for a guaranteed annual year...
"The Eddie Cantor Show" (approx) replaces "The Red Skelton Show" (ditto) on KGO-Radio at 5 p.m. weekdays, starting May 30...
Some TV announcers are lost when anything happens to the teleprompter. Gordon Roth knows one who couldn't do a life a click if he had false teeth.
