Grand Jury Will Get Mendocino Gambling Case

Special to The Chronicle

UKIAH, Sept. 2—District Attorney James E. Busch announced today the grand jury would be called into session "in the middle of the month," in connection with the Mendocino county slot machine "protection" investigation.

Busch said "convincing but not necessarily new" evidence would be presented to the special grand jury meeting.

The investigation centers around charges Fred Grange, a resort owner, offered protection money to Sheriff Beverly C. Broaddus. Grange is due for preliminary hearing September 14 for attempted bribery and conspiracy to violate the gambling laws.

Willie Griffin and Robert Gray, asserted slot machine operators, also are awaiting arraignment in Superior court on gambling conspiracy charges.

Mass to Be Held At St. Mary's for Thomas J. Bellew

A requiem mass will be offered at 9:30 o'clock this morning (Friday) at St. Mary's Cathedral for Thomas J. Bellew, widely known San Francisco newspaper man.

Mr. Bellew, who was 68 years of age, died Wednesday at St. Francis hospital of virus pneumonia. He had been ill only a few days.

A native of San Francisco, Mr. Bellew was a graduate of Sacred Heart College and during his long newspaper career was associated with the old Morning Call, the Examiner and The Chronicle.

He is survived by his sister, Mrs. John J. Boisseaut, of Sacramento, and three nephews and a niece, all of San Francisco. They are Edward, John and Richard Bellew, and Mrs. Walter Belcomb.

Funeral arrangements are under direction of Cahill & English, 350 Masonic avenue. Interment will be at Holy Cross Cemetery.
