Constable Injured By Landing Airliner

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. (AP) — Constable J. G. Thompson of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police was severely injured when the wheels of a landing Trans-Canada Air Line passenger plane struck the roof of his patrol car.
The plane landed without difficulty. The patrol car was on a highway skirting the airfield.

Speaking at his first regular news conference, Pote said he had heard reports connecting the free state regime with former Thai Premier Pridi Phanomyong.
Pridi was overthrown in a coup 10 years ago, fled to Hong Kong and later turned up in Shanghai.
Pote said his government has a plan to counter the free-Thai group but preferred to keep it under wraps for the present.
Pote heads a temporary government that was set up after a military junta overthrew Premier P. Pibulsonggram recently.

manslaughter in a fatal accident, bation by Superior Court Judge Stanley Lawson yesterday.

Padernal was driver of one of four vehicles involved in the smashup on Springfield hill last June 2. John Lievanos, 82, of Salinas, a passenger in an oncoming car, was killed.
