As promised by Tom, attached is the historic 2013 Settlement Agreement between the State of New York, Madison County, Oneida County and the Oneida Indian Nation. I've also attached a briefing paper that summarizes the Agreement's terms. I'm sure you remember the animosity and division that existed in central New York during the pendency of the 2008 trust land decision, and all the related litigation. As hard as it is to imagine, not quite a decade later, it's a very different environment. The parties have established strong working relationships with one another and cooperate on regional economic development, social and police issues and in many other areas.

If you have questions, please let us know. We welcome the opportunity to come visit and bring you up to speed on all that has happened with the Nation over the last 8 years.

Thanks.

Kelly
