

Judges Lenient on Repeaters, Bowler Says

Chief Dep. Dist. Atty. Manley J. Bowler, campaigning for district attorney, charged Wednesday that judges are too lenient with criminals.

He told a luncheon meeting of the Los Angeles County Bar Association.

"It's all agree that leniency and probation are right for first offenders," he said. "But I submit that when a judge cuts the conviction of a repeat criminal down to a mere demerit, that man will not lose his nose-man either way."

"Too many judges are letting narcotics peddlers, robbers and child molesters return to the street," Bowler said.

Drive on Bunko Cases Pledged by Dalsimer

The district attorney's office "practically ignores" bunko cases, said, Superior Judge Robert S. Dalsimer charged Wednesday in his campaign to win election next Tuesday in district attorney.

He told a Square Club luncheon meeting that if elected, he would clamp down on bunko artists instead of allowing them to "make Los Angeles County their haven."

"The average consumer in this county is subject to greater risks from bunko artists than in almost any other county in the state, because such artists are generally treated only as misdemeanors," Dalsimer said.

Baldwin Hills Tax Relief Bill Signed

Gov. Brown signed a bill Wednesday giving tax relief to Baldwin Hills Dam disaster victims.

The bill requires the county treasurer—at the request of a taxpayer—to reassess property destroyed or damaged by erosion of $200 during last December's dam break.

The assessment would be at the property's value immediately after the disaster.
