It is apparent after discussing your memo of July 31 on the above subject with Messrs. Smith and Lynam that LIA has no data on which to mount a defense.

We would be in a position that there is no data to disprove what the Center for Science is saying, but we have no constructive data on the other side, and I believe we would be put in an untenable position should we get involved in a public confrontation on the issue at this time.

So, sit tight until we develop something.
