Dear 5.1.2e

Thank you for your interest in the workshop on essential use.

Unfortunately, we are only able to invite 3x 15 participants to the sessions to be able to facilitate a good discussion.

In preparing for the meetings, we prepared a long list of possible participants. We included your name on this list. However, in shortening the list we had to make some choices and we selected other candidates (including some people with a legal background).

I have noted your interest and put you on the reserve list in case other participants cannot make it.

Kind regards,

5.1.2e

Dear 5.1.2e

I hope you started the New Year well and wish you a great 2021.

I was informed that you are organizing a "thinking session" in February on Essential Uses of persistent chemicals with various stakeholders.

I would be happy to participate and contribute to that workshop from the legal angle (another important angle).

As a follow up to the CW event on the topic, I have done further legal research on this concept and I am now reviewing the contributions submitted in response to the Commission paper. I am thus keen to contribute.

I would limit my contribution to strictly legal comments as opposed to any industry representation at that workshop.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Thank you and kind regards.
