Tell Details of Cooley Case

SANTA ANA — Hearings details of notorious Southern California murder trials will be unveiled here today before the Orange County Press Club by famed Beverly Hills defense attorney P. Basil Lombroso.

Lombroso, whose clients have included the Elving Scott, cowboy star Spade Cooley and James Merkoures, will speak during a press club seminar program in the Cafe de Cavalier on the 10th floor of the Citizens National Bank building, 10th St. and Broadway.

Among the details he will discuss will be the court-ordered chaining and caging of Merkoures, who had gone berserk during his murder trial.

Lombroso also is expected to answer questions regarding the famed Elving Scott murder trial in which the defendant was convicted although the state was unable to find his wife's body.

The seminar program will get under way at 5:30 p.m., according to chairman Don Keller.
