Dear Mr. Rowe:

RE: DUTCH BOY HI OXIDE RED LEAD.*

In line with established company policy as to the use of the words "DUTCH BOY" in connection with any particular product, we respectfully request authority to use it as designated above, it being our intention to use it only in connection with red-lead which has been prepared from steam ground litharge.

We have found the product to have paint making qualities equal to, if not better than the Evans Hi-Oxide.

The matter has been discussed with Mr. Merson and I believe you will find him in accord with this request.

Yours very truly,
