mentioned subject to our acceptance at that time. Another reason is that at the present time they have no idea what the price of this material will be for the second three months of this year.

The very best arrangement we could make was to have them hold offer open for one week.

They express their regret at being unable to comply with your request, but stated that conditions over which they have no control, make it impossible for them to do so.

We confirm our night letter message of even date giving you the above information and now await your reply.

Very truly yours,

W. P. FULLER & CO.
