North, conceding two tricks. If he discarded dummy's heart deuce and ruffed in the closed hand, West would duck the first heart lead, letting dummy's ten win. When declarer next led the spade six to the seven-spot, West would discard the heart queen and take the last two tricks with the heart ace and diamond eight. Finally, if declarer unblocked a heart honor from dummy while ruffing the diamond in his hand, West would merely cover South's lead.
