The liability under the Policy for any claim arising otherwise than under the Workers' Compensation Act, 1912-1918, or the Employers' Liability Act, 1891, is limited to the sum of £1,000 in respect of any one claimant, and to the sum of £2,000 for each individual disaster, inclusive of costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith.

I undertake to keep a correct account of all wages and salaries paid to my employees and workers in a proper and regular Wages Book, and to require my Sub-Contractors to keep similar Wages Books, and on request supply the Government Actuary with a correct account of all such wages and salaries, and submit such Wages Books to the inspection of the Government Actuary whenever required, either for the purpose of verifying the correctness of a claim or ascertaining the proper amount of Premium.
