Subject: Question on Fudan invoice

What do you think of the adjustment for currency fluctuations in the attached invoice from Fudan University? Is this something that has been done before?

API is working with Dr. Fu to get the proper documentation for this 2005 invoice and will likely paid them in the next few weeks. Just not sure how much!

Subject: invoice-2005

Dear Bruce

After the new semester of our university stated I asked my colleague to copy some invoice documents of last year and planned to send them to you. Unfortunately the documents of scanned copies are too big to sent you by email. Would you pls tell me the fax number of your office? I will send them to you.

Herewith Pls find the attachement of the invoice-2005.

In addtion you can use my email address in the university to contact to you. But you would not receive my email through our university email address. I have to use such a public email address to contact to you.
