Christopher - I wanted to introduce you to our speechwriter, Eli (cc'd on this email). He's preparing the Secretary's talking points for next week. Do you mind calling him -- office #202-208-3311 (or having someone on your team call him). He was planning to use some of the language in the foreword but I thought it might be more helpful for the two of you speak. Thank you! Leila

Secretary
United States Department of the Interior

Washington, D.C. 20240

Dear Mr. Secretary:

On behalf of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's Global Energy Institute, I invite you to address three key groups at a joint meeting at the U.S. Chamber: the Global Energy Institute's Leadership Council; the Energy, Clean Air, and Natural Resources Committee; and the Environment and Agriculture Committee. The meeting is scheduled to convene on Wednesday, December 12, 2018. We will work with your office to find a time that is convenient for your schedule. This off-the-record discussion provides an opportunity for you to share your thoughts with senior business leaders from a diverse cross-section of industries with a stake in energy policy.

The Global Energy Institute, an affiliate of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, was founded to unify energy policymakers, regulators, business leaders, and the American public behind a common strategy that ensures affordable, reliable, and diverse energy supplies, as well as one that improves environmental stewardship, promotes economic growth, and strengthens national security.

Thank you for your consideration of this invitation, and we very much hope you will be able to speak at this important event. Kara Riba from the Global Energy Institute will follow up with your office to facilitate your participation in our Leadership Council meeting. She can be contacted by phone at (202) 463-5476 or by email at kriba@uschamber.com.

Sincerely,
