19 Minor Leagues To Start Seasons

NEW YORK, April 18 (AP)—Nineteen minor leagues will join the majors in opening their 1949 baseball seasons this week. Eight circuits already have started play. The remaining 32 match of the Northern California will open between April 24 and May 11.

Frank Sample Upsets Slack in Second Round

SAN FRANCISCO, April 18 (AP)—Unseeded Frank Sample of San Mateo, a third-seeded Ellis Match of Monterey View yesterday upset the top seed, 6-2, in a second round match of the Northern California tennis championships.

Spartans Battle Carmel Padres Tomorrow

The league leading Gonzales Spartans' baseball team will honor the Carmel Padres with a visit tomorrow afternoon at 3:30.

This league battle will take place on the Carmel field and should develop into a pitchers' duel between Spartian Wesley Breschini and Padre Gene Vandervort.

TOP CHUCKERS

Both Vandervort and Breschini are acknowledged as top rate pitchers and each man bats in the clean up position for his team.

A victory for the Padres would bring their conference record to night's only home but it was un- three wins and two losses while if the Spartans win it will be their fourth win in five starts.

Art Harber will catch for Vandervort and the rest of the starting margin in the ninth to decide when Ralph Buxton his first win of the season Cookie Lavagetto stretched a single to second and scored Les Scarsella. Then two sacrifice bunts promoted the "1947 Idol of Flat-bush" home. The Stars had the setting for a storybook finish in their half of the ninth. Frankie Kelleher, who had homered earlier in the game, came up with two on and two out. But "The Power" is, said Trainer Le-

Don Watkins pitched four hit ball for the Angels against the Seals while his mates showed plenty of batting power. About the only solace gained by the Seals was a neat triple play in the ninth which smothered more Angel scoring. Twig Terwilliger, Angel second baseman, hit the night's only home but it was un- needed, the Angels leading 4-0 at the time. Both teams played error- less ball. Al Lien nicked for 11 hits, stayed the distance for San Francisco.

THREE HITTER. At Portland the fans were sorry that one of the local boys ever got out of town. Don Johnson, Port- Neils Reimers, right field, Lee Land native, held the Beavers to Labgenour-
