Recreation department adds dancing class

A social dancing class for boys and girls in grades 8 through 12 has been added to the program of the division of general recreation of the Palo Alto Recreation Department.

The class will meet each Wednesday night at 7:15 p.m., starting tomorrow. The instructor will be Gloria Cathey, a new member of the recreation department staff, who is a graduate of San Francisco City College and San Jose State College. Miss Cathey will teach tumbling and archery and handle special events. In addition to teaching dancing.
