The Cato Institute's Center for Monetary and Financial Alternatives invites you to a Book Forum Wednesday, August 1, 2018.

Borrowed Time:

Two Centuries of Booms, Busts, and Bailouts at Citi

(Harper Business, August 2018)

A roundtable discussion on the soon-to-be released book

featuring the authors

James Freeman, Assistant Editor, Editorial Page, the Wall Street Journal

Vern McKinley, Visiting Scholar, The George Washington University Law School

moderated by

George Selgin, Director, Center for Monetary and Financial Alternatives, Cato Institute

RSVP to the event

Borrowed Time explores the alarming, untold story of Citigroup, one of the largest financial institutions in the world, from its founding as the City Bank of New York in 1812 to its role in the 2008 financial crisis—and its many near-death experiences and government bailouts in between. Join us for a pre-release roundtable discussion with the authors.
