A Yes.

Q I guess unless somebody messed up your job, right?

A Right.

Q And Mr. Vandergucht, he worked for a gentleman by the name of Mr. Krebs?

A Robert Krebs.

Q So Mr. Krebs was in charge of all of the plasterers who were doing the initial -- the brown coat, the first two or three layers?

A Yes.

Q That is why Mr. Vandergucht would be about two to three days ahead of you, because he was doing the brown coat and you were doing the white coat after him?

A That is true.

Q At times the two of you wouldn't even be on the same floor because he would get a little bit ahead of you, right?

A Right.

Q Am I correct that the first time that you
