

WILEY JOSE.

Mrs. H. C. Hitchcock of Mountain View, sister of the bride, and Miss Doris Schy of Palo Alto were the bride's two attendants. Pastel blue lace was worn by Mrs. Hitchcock, who carried an arm bouquet of mixed sweet peas. Miss Schy was in pastel blue net and carried an old-fashioned bouquet. Both are old maids worth of sweet peas in their hair.

Standing with the bridegroom is best man Albert Rehm of Palo Alto. The wedding guests were seated by William Smith and Walter Hansen, both of Palo Alto. Carl Uppman was the soloist, singing "Oh, Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly." The organist was Miss Laura Lee.

A reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnson, followed the ceremony. The newlyweds received the congratulations of their friends standing before the altar, which was flanked by white flowers. Guests were entertained in the home and in the gardens, where the bride's table was set in an all-white motif.

The bride's mother wore a new dusty rose lace. Both she and the bridegroom's mother wore green lace, wore coral. The bride is the daughter of Mountain View. She is a graduate of the high school there, and her husband is a Palo Alto High school graduate.

The newlyweds will make their home at 312 Euclid avenue.
