our league parks" Thomas said Bearden claimed he couldn't pitch in small parks

The Baltimore manager promptly smacked a $500 fine and suspension on the pitcher

All this happened June 3 and for the next few weeks Bearden just sat in Los Angeles "I'm still waiting," he said "I won't go back to Baltimore"

BUSY ON PHONE

Meanwhile, Veeck was busy on the phone trying to convince Thomas and other Orioles officials to reinstate the pitcher. The manager balked and swore the suspension would stick

But Veeck finally persuaded higher echelon Orioles to forget the "Bearden incident" The suspension was lifted and Bearden returned to pitching for Oakland This spring he went to training camp with Cleveland

Probably Veeck himself never realized how important it was when he talked the Orioles out of the suspension. If he hadn't, the Cleveland Indians would be without a 20-game winner and the name of Gene Bearden never heard of in the precedent-setting 1948 American League pennant tie

Altered to fit geographical locations of member schools, the seven-team Monterey section of the Conference is to include San Francisco, Salinas, Menlo, San Mateo, Stockton, and Modesto

Seven teams will compose the "B Division" also, they being Yuba, Placer, Vallejo, Marin, Sacramento, Grant and Santa Rosa

Cool Weather for Series Predicted

BOSTON, Oct 5 (AP)—The weather bureau predicts the first World Series game tomorrow at Braves' Field will be played in cool, somewhat cloudy weather

Temperatures Wednesday afternoon are expected to be about 63 degrees. There'll be some sunshine, the forecaster said but high cloudiness will increase during the afternoon.

The 1948 champions staged a two-run, tenth-inning rally last night to top the hard-hitting Angels 11 to 9. Consecutive singles by Brooks Holder, Cookie Lavagetto and George Meikovich and an infield fly by Nick Etten produced the game-winning, series-clinching tallies

Ralph Buxton, the fourth Acorn pitcher to see action in the game, chalked up the victory, while Dewey Adkins, who was tagged for 17 Oakland hits, was charged with the loss

Les Scarsella slammed a four-master with the bases loaded in the seventh to help Casey Stengel's lads to victory. Dominic Dallsandro homered for Los Angeles Seattle will journey to the Bay Area to open the playoffs in Emeryville

The Governor's Cup winner will pocket $15,000, while the defeated finalist will receive $10,000.

Did You Ever See A Cow Walking?

PARADISE, Calif., Oct. 5 (AP)—Alice Elaine Smith, 19-year-old housewife, mistook a cow for a deer on a hunting trip last Monday. It was a fatal mistake for the cow and poor judgment for Mrs. Smith

"Rather than see the meat go to waste," she had her husband, Francis R. Smith, 20, help her butcher the cow, she related

Rancher Sheldon L. Foster brought the Paradise couple before the judge Friday on charges of shooting and butchering his property. Released on $1,000 bond, the Smiths get a preliminary hearing October 14

Carburetor Too Rich Makes Motorist Too Poor

Car owners who are wasting money and not getting proper gas mileage due to over-rich mixtures will be pleased to learn of a Wisconsin inventor who has developed a very clever unit that helps save gasoline by "Vacu-mating." It is automatic and operates on the supercharge principle. Easily installed in a few minutes. Fits all cars, trucks and tractors. The manufacturers, the Vacu-matic Carburetor Co., 7617-700 W. State St., Wauwatosa, Wis., are offering a Vacu-matic to anyone who will install it on his car and help introduce it to others. They will gladly send full free particulars if you write them or just send your name and address on a penny post card today.
