

His cleaning devices are unusual also. A large boiler, using diesel oil, has been moved into the Tribune parking lot adjacent to the building. Operating at 250 pounds pressure, the boiler delivers steam at 150 pounds pressure to jet guns at the other end tion class in "Diction and Vocabulary Building," held at 7 p.m. each Friday at 1730 Franklin Street.

A dictionary is the only text needed for the class, and visitors are welcome to attend the meeting tomorrow night without obligation.

You can paint now...pay later!

You needn't touch that savings account! Your home can have that needed re-decorating job right away... without even a down payment. Up to 36 months, in easy installments that fit your budget. See us about this helpful easy-pay painting plan. Available whether you hire a painter or do the job yourself.

DUTCH BOY PAINT STORE

2000 UNIVERSITY AVENUE

297 - 10th Street

3511 E. 14th. Street

Tribune photos
been restored
from cuts.

Oakland Tribune Sept. 24, 1953 sec. D p. 9