Re: Vaughn v. Union Carbide Corporation

Dear Nick:

Thank you for your letter of August 9, 1986. In order to have a check sent to you for the work you have performed under your Consultant's Agreement, I will need a billing invoice from you stating the amount of time spent, together with a description of the service provided and total amount due.

Upon receipt of your statement, I will promptly process its payment.

I apologize for any inconvenience this may cause.

Best regards.

Sincerely yours,

James V. O'Gara
