Subject: FYI... Steve Bowes (ExxonMobil) out on medical disability

BHRC Technical Committee, API Health & Product Stewardship Committee and API TSCA Task Force -

FYI... Steve Bowes, ExxonMobil representative to the Shanghai Health Study (BHRC) Technical Committee, API Health & Product Stewardship Committee and TSCA Task Force is temporarily "out of pocket" on medical disability, following a recent mishap involving a ladder, chain saw, and tree limb that didn't fall as planned. Fortunately, Steve's injuries were not life threatening and were limited to a fractured wrist and soft tissue damage.

Our thoughts and best wishes are with Steve for a speedy and complete recovery.

Best Regards - Bruce.
