to the whole situation was the question of whether Dressen—who refused to accept a one-year contract—might reconsider and thus succeed himself as manager after one of the shortest retirements on record.

Club President Walter O'Malley stayed away from his desk all day on business said to be "not connected with baseball." But there were reports that he and Dressen planned a meeting today, perhaps to allow the ex-manager to decide to return.

H. Gustafson with a 95-12—83 tied Mrs. E. R. Olson's 97-14—83 for second place.
