MONTALVO

There has been considerable shaking up along the S. P. M. Co.'s warehouse lines the past week. Mr. Walter Johnson, who has been manager here for some time past, has been transferred to Ventura. The Ventura manager goes to Oxnard. J. W. Newby, who has been manager at Moorpark, succeeds Mr. Johnson here. N. E. Nelson, the Santa Susana manager, succeeds Mr. Newby of Moorpark. Thus a general change has been made all around. The S. P. M. Co. realize that a change is the same as a good rest, therefore they want to show their appreciation of the good services rendered them by their employees by giving them a much needed rest without stoppage of pay.

Mrs. P. E. Merrill is improving slowly after a siege of several days' sickness. Her daughter, Mrs. Sanborn of Ventura, is spending a while with her.

W. H. Fowler of Simi passed through here Tuesday en route to Ventura to pay his family a visit. Mrs. Fowler and children are located in Ventura this year for the benefit of the superior advantages of excellent schools.

Mr. Richardson of Simi paid Ventura Lodge K. of P. a visit Tuesday evening.

C. O. Morrill and family are expected home this week, after a month's visit at the fair and with relatives in Illinois and neighboring states.

J. W. Newby's family moved here Tuesday from Moorpark.

W. Johnson and family moved to Ventura this week.

Boston 274 Years Old

On September 17th the city of Boston was 274 years old. There was no formal celebration of the event and comparatively few people realized that the municipality had reached such a ripe age. The Transcript, commenting upon the fact, says: "Although there is no evidence that a single person comprising Winthrop's colony was living on the peninsula now known as Boston on September 17, 1630, on that day, however, the Court of Assistants had a meeting in Charlestown, where the future Boston colonists were then living, and they then and there solemnly ordered that Thanksgiving shall be called
