I am Scott's pastor in Broken Arrow. First, let me say "thank you" for what you do to help him stay organized and well-informed daily. You are a great help to his success and all of us "back here in Oklahoma" are very grateful for you and to you.

I have two things that I wanted to make sure you conveyed to him in this very busy time in his schedule....

1) I had asked him months ago to consider speaking to our church on Sept.24th. Between his schedule and some things we need to promote here on that Sunday, please tell him that I have made other plans for the 24th and we will schedule him for a later date when he can be home. I suspect with all of the hurricanes and wild fires, he may not be back in OK for some time anyway.

Personal Matters/Ex. 6

You have my email address in the header. Should you ever need to call me, my phone number at the church is 918-258-4575 (First Baptist, Broken Arrow) and my cell is

Thank you for your help.

Blessings on you....
