Subject: BREAKING NEWS: Price says he'll pay for charter flights

HHS Secretary Tom Price said he will write a personal check to the federal government for the costs of traveling on private jets and will permanently halt his use of charter flights.

"The taxpayers won't pay a dime for my seat on those planes," Price said in a statement Thursday afternoon.

The announcement follows a POLITICO investigation finding that Price has taken at least 26 charter flights costing more than $400,000 since May to conduct official business within the country.
