Subject: George Mason/Scalia Law Alumni Reception - US Capitol/Mansfield Room - Sept. 7, 5-8pm

Dear Fellow George Mason/Scalia Law Alumni:

It's been too long since the last Capitol Hill reception for the alumni of our fine law school.

I am writing to encourage you to attend our next reception, with Dean Henry Butler, Thursday, September 7, 2017 from 5-8pm in the Mansfield Room, U.S. Capitol (S-207).

Our new Director of Alumni Relations, Mark Forrest will also be there to meet everyone.

Please RSVP at this link: Register Today or scroll down to the invitation, below.

As in years past, we are gathering our law alumni with a shared interest in Capitol Hill, who work on the Hill, or in the Administration, or downtown DC, interested in policymaking, and networking with fellow Mason alumni.

On a personal note – yes, my title has changed. I recently was honored to become co-head of government relations at MFA. Come to the reception, and we can share a drink to celebrate!

Also, please feel free to forward this note to other alumni and encourage them to RSVP as well.

Thanks,
David Landers

MFA's Outlook 2017 Conference
Nov. 28-29, 2017, The Pierre, New York

Join the Scalia Law Community for an evening networking reception on Capitol Hill on Thursday, September 7.

The event promises to be a wonderful evening in the historic Mansfield Room of the U.S. Capitol with Scalia Law Dean Henry N. Butler, alumni who are current or former Capitol Hill staff, alumni who work in the downtown Washington, D.C. area, and Mason's Scalia Law alumni, students, and friends with a shared interest in public policy.

Light hors d'oeuvres, beer, and wine will be provided.

Capitol Hill Alumni Reception
