Analysis

Air Pollution Control Guide

State

Indiana (Emissions Trading). Updated to reflect a final rulemaking by the Indiana Department of Environmental Management establishing emissions trading programs for annual and seasonal nitrogen oxides and sulfur dioxide as required by the federal Cross-State Air Pollution Rule (CSAPR). The rule took effect Nov. 24.

Virginia (NOx SIP Call). Updated to reflect a final rulemaking by the Virginia Department of Environmental Quality conforming the state's Nitrogen Oxide Budget Program to the federal CSAPR. This Virginia rule removes requirements pertaining to the trading of NOx emissions under CAIR. It also retains requirements necessary to control emissions from nonelectric generating units to make state requirements conform with CSAPR. The rule took effect Nov. 29.

Additional Analysis

Defining Green Finance for Climate Change. A new Practitioner Insights article by Daniel Rossetto, chief executive of Climate Mundial, and Bruce Tozer, chairman of Climate Mundial, is added that proposes a definition for “green finance” in the context of climate change. The authors argue that green finance is an important and emerging segment of financial markets that holds the promise of delivering environmental benefits that could help tackle climate change.

Safety Guide

State

Alaska (Whistle-Blowers). Updated to remove a requirement that discrimination reports alleging retaliatory actions taken against employees who file complaints must be submitted within 30 days. The rule became effective Nov. 29.

Waste Management Guide

State

Alaska (Underground Storage Tanks (Financial Responsibility)). Updated to reflect an Alaska final rule amending financial responsibility requirements for owners of underground storage tanks.

Alaska (Underground Storage Tanks (Financial Assistance)). Revised to provide an updated analysis of Alaska financial assistance for remediating releases from underground storage tanks.

Alaska (Aboveground Storage Tanks). Revised to provide an updated analysis of Alaska's regulatory program for aboveground storage tanks.
