

thought was an unarmed captive. Sheriff Chauncey V. Van Pelt, 44, of Hot Sulphur Springs, said the men he shot carried papers identifying them as Harold G. Glass, 21, of Perry, Okla., and Roy Willard Kane, 23, of Pecos, Tex.

Van Pelt said he received a report of an abandoned car six miles east of Hot Sulphur Springs, mountain community approximately 100 miles northwest of Denver.

He investigated and found two young hitchhikers in the car. They told him, the sheriff said, that two other men owned the car and were at Granby to arrange for towing service.

Van Pelt said that as he was summoning aid, the men arrived from Granby and jumped him, guns drawn, forcing him into the back seat of his own car but neglecting to disarm him.

One man drove and one held a gun on the sheriff as the car went through Hot Sulphur Springs and Parshall.

A mile east of there, Melvin Knox, Hot Sulphur Springs town marshal, spotted the car and tried to hail it down. When it didn't stop, he opened fire, gave chase in his car.

The men holding the sheriff drove on until Van Pelt yelled, "look up ahead; there's a road block." Van Pelt said that when he men looked ahead at a truck rolling across the highway, he threw his revolver and shot them both in the head.

of control, side-swiped another auto and overturned. California Highway Patrol officer James Honea said the car, driven by John Myers, 17, 1640 16th Street, was south bound on La Paloma Road, hilly thoroughfare a half mile south of Appian Way, when it suddenly swerved over to the left side of the road.

On its flight down hill Myers' car scraped the right side of a northbound car driven by Robert L. Albertin, 26, 4025 Lambert Road, El Sobrante. Then the Myers car bounded up a 45-degree embankment on the side of the road, overturned and rolled back down to the road.

Myers suffered a broken rib but his three passengers were only bruised. They were Buster Brown, 21, and his brother, Donald, 19, both of 1633 Dover Avenue, and William Hurt, 18, 1861 16th Street. A fourth youth, identified by his companions as Andrew Travis, 17, left the scene before police arrived.
