COYOTE

The Coyote Clubhouse will be the scene of many affairs tomorrow night and during the coming week. Tomorrow evening the Women's club will be hostesses at a Halloween party and dance. It will be a private party. All who have been invited have also been asked to bring in costumes. The entertainment and refreshment committees have everything in reading and promise a good time for all.

Tuesday evening the Coyote Single People's club will hold its regular meeting. Margaret Petray has charge of the entertainment for the evening and she promises a good time for all the members. Final arrangements will also be made at the meeting for the club's dance on November 6.

On Thursday afternoon the Central Woman's club will hold their November meeting. Mrs. H. Stevens and Mrs. Hammonds will be the hostesses for the afternoon.

Thursday evening the Coyote Grange will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting. It has been requested that all members be present. There will be a report of the State Grange meeting in San Jose last week. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Alden Shepard were delegates to the convention. Those who took the sixth degree from Coyote Grange at the State convention were Mr. and Mrs. H. Stevens, Mrs. Hester Patton, Mr. J. Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hansen.

Saturday evening, November 6, the Coyote Single People's club will give a public dance. This will be the first public affair to be given by the club and all the members are working hard to make it a success. An excellent San Jose orchestra has been secured for the event.

The Coast Counties Gas & Electric Company has extended its line on Palm avenue as far as the Andrew leg section with them and so they beat Machado 9 to 1. Not the local team was only temporarily vanquished for we heard the captain, Joe Henry Harkness, say, "We'll beat 'em next time all right," and an echoing chorus of "You bet," from his team which was composed of Leyle Epph, Elvin Petrina, Charlotte Batters, Eleanor Pankahl, Beatrice Rhodes, Gustaf Manka, George Muschla, Nick Muschla, Jimmie Petrina, Leo Schwingle and Robert Harkness. Mr. Allen, principal of San Martin school, made an excellent umpire.

The bulb, plant and seed sale, under the able supervision of Mrs. Guy Harkness was a decided success, both financially and artistically. Mrs. Harkness did everything possible to make this a memorable event, from making alluring posters to collecting plants and bulbs. She had beautifully displayed beneath the trees at the school house where those who came to buy got unusual bargains. Mrs. Ayser and Mrs. Osborne assisted in selling. Sincere thanks are hereby given to all who contributed bulbs, plants and seeds.

The proceeds provide funds with which to buy prizes for school children in the "Wild Flower Contest" which which Machado P. T. A. sponsors.

Adopted by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Lodge No. 237, Morgan Hill, California, October 21, 1926:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, in the exercise of his all-wise and inscrutable providence, to remove our Brother, Joseph C. Akern, from the walks of the living, and from the labors of the Lodge on earth, to the rewards of the Supreme Lodge of Heav;

First, That we humbly and submissively bow to the inexplicable stroke of Divine Providence, and that we are
