Hi Allegra,

Actually, could we discuss how you advertise this? We would prefer not to have his bio and headshot up on your website or have you publicly advertise that he will be attending and speaking. This is due to security reasons and so as not to draw unwanted attention to the event.

I am happy to speak yet today or on Monday for us to get on the same page and understand how we will move forward from here.

Does that work?

Yes! I just spoke with Jennie yesterday and she just needed to write something up for me, but she said it was cleared.

Jennie, can you send that written approval to me separately, with any comments?

Allegra – I think this means we're good to go!
