Subject: How Do You Manage the Media Mix? Share Your Input

Colleagues,

Washington Insiders are avid media consumers, but with the explosion of information sources and channels, and with news breaking round the clock, how do you filter what's important to stay connected and in-the-know?

I am excited to invite you to contribute your thoughts in the seventh edition of National Journal's Washington in the Information Age survey: Participate Here. Our goal is to foster smarter, more meaningful exchanges of ideas within the policy community.

Your role in this community makes your insights critical to mapping a comprehensive picture of the media landscape, so I hope you will take 15 minutes to share your views. Responses are kept strictly confidential and only presented in the aggregate.

We appreciate your time and as a thank you for your participation, we will provide you with priority access to the study's executive summary. If you should have any questions or would like more information about the research, please do not hesitate to ask.

Thank you in advance,
Afzal Bari
