

October 19, 1932

Grace Woodruff and Martha Cole were the next artists on the program, giving a ventriloquist act, which drew many laughs; and Mrs. Grace Vincent then delighted with two vocal numbers, an Irish folk song and "The Evening Star," with piano accompaniment by Miss Eva Rasmussen and violin solo by William Lowe.

The following reception was a humorous musical one by Estelle Mello, who, over the program board, discussed with an imaginary friend the various members of the club.

Concluding the program was a marshall demonstration by Betty Smith and Laura Wylie.

While the ladies were being cleared the group formed a serpentine and visited the business section of the town, the hard times adding to the fun of the occasion; and later they all returned to the section-Athene clubhouse, for Halloween as the games and fortune telling. Apple, paper, finger and little songs, etc., were greatly additional pleasing features of the evening.

Assisting Miss Denmark on the committee were Mrs. Dale Coona, Mrs. Margie Hawley and Miss Betty Pearce.

Ten of the members of the Declaration of Independence were born in Massachusetts.

Cleveland Bohakah Lodge will meet tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the I.O.O.F. hall, with Mrs. Sarah Ward as chairman for this evening. All members who have decorated bands are asked to bring them for the minute of the I.O.O.F. home, to whom they will be sent.

The first four days, October 9, 10, 11 and 12, they attended the hotel operators' association meeting at the Hotel Del Monte, in Del Monte, and on October 13, 14 and 15 were attending the auto rental owners' association convention in San Diego. They then spent two days in Long Beach with friends before returning home.

L. A. P. M. Miss Katherine Weaver, president of the ladies' auxiliary to the Patrons of the Mill, asks for a full attendance at the next meeting Friday night, at 8 o'clock, in the Ventura I.O.O.F. hall.

Attending Conventions

Fire Chief and Mrs. F. A. Johnson and Miss Katherine Weaver returned home Sunday night from a week in the north during which they attended the I.O.O.F. encampment at Modesto and the Elks convention at San Jose. Miss Weaver is president of the local chapter of the I.O.O.F. women's auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left early yesterday morning for San Diego, where they are attending the fire chiefs' convention this week.
