Dear Friend,

It's that time of year again!

Our annual Winter Roundtable and Field Tour in Las Vegas, Nevada is just around the corner!

Save the date for our Policy Roundtable with Members of the Senate and Congressional Western Caucuses, key federal policy makers, and Congressional staff. There will also be some fantastic field tours, including opportunities to visit the Grand Canyon and the National Finals Rodeo!

Invited guests also include: federal, state, and local government policy makers, Foundation stakeholders, & special invited guests.

There's no need to RSVP yet. Registration information and a detailed agenda will be sent in early October.

For those interested in the National Final Rodeo click here: About the WNFR and "RODEO CHEAT SHEET" here: Rodeo 101

For any questions, please email: info@westerncaucusfoundation.org

Founded in 2013, The Western Caucus Foundation (WCF), a 501 (c)(3), is a cultural education organization committed to educating public policy makers and communicating with the public in an effort to enhance, sustain, and preserve the West's dynamic and unique culture. The Foundation provides support, education, and networking opportunities to advance the public policies important to the West, and offers members a non-partisan and non-political organization to facilitate discussion of critical Western issues through a robust agenda of meetings, conferences, and programs.

They make us proud to support them

As usual, our four Tony Blankley fellows have been on the pulse of what's happening in the United States and around the world. From smart and responsible commentary on Supreme Court Justice nominee Brett Kavanaugh to providing analysis about important political issues, these young journalists make us proud to support their work on TV, in print, on podcasts -- and more. Take a look at their latest feats below!
