ANTIPOVERTY FORUM

• The Heritage Foundation •

Fellow Conservative,

I hope 2018 has started well for you. I enjoyed seeing many partners working to overcome poverty at our 2017 Antipoverty Forum last November. (You can watch that program online here.) I'm looking forward to continued collaboration in 2018 as we work to refocus policy for the good of people.

Please mark your calendars to join us for the 2018 Antipoverty Forum on November 15, 2018, at The Heritage Foundation.

The Antipoverty Forum is a great opportunity for us to come together to leverage our strengths and refine our strategy to bring true change to those who need it most. I hope you'll join us for the 2018 Forum.

This week, President Trump highlighted the importance of welfare reform in his State of the Union address. We have a great opportunity before us to offer real opportunities for families and communities across the country. I look forward to working with you to pursue these important goals in the year ahead.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Marshall
