W. A. TERWILLIGER TO RETIRE

W. A. Terwilliger, manager of the pigment division of the Atlantic Branch since 1949, will retire on June 1.

Mr. Terwilliger came to National Lead in 1919 as a sales representative in New York state. He was transferred to the Atlantic branch sales staff in New York City in 1939. On February 1, 1941 he became assistant sales manager of the branch linseed oil department and on April 1, 1942 was appointed sales manager.

BENNETT AND ZANG PROMOTED IN ATLANTIC BRANCH

Ralph M. Bennett has been named manager of the pigment division of the Atlantic Branch and J. A. Zang manager of painters' products and oils.

Mr. Bennett began his career in the paint field with the Sherwin-Williams Company promotion department in 1918. He became assistant manager of the company's industrial, railway and marine sales department and in 1932 was placed in charge of the maintenance sales department of Sherwin-Williams. Four years later he moved to the Billings-Chapin Company as general sales manager and in 1937 he became president and treasurer. In 1940 he returned to Sherwin-Williams, in charge of their New England Division. He came to National Lead in 1949 as assistant to the manager of trade sales.

Mr. Zang continues as assistant manager of the pigment division of the Atlantic Branch, in addition to his new duties. He started his Company career in 1905 as an office boy. He served as a billing clerk, bookkeeper, cashier and metal department assistant in the Atlantic Branch, was then appointed assistant to the comptroller and manager of the branch's export department. In 1922 he was transferred to the sales department and in 1939 became sales manager of the white lead division of the branch. Mr. Zang was appointed assistant manager of the pigment division of the Atlantic Branch in 1949.
