

MINUTES
of the
TECHNICAL & RESEARCH COMMITTEE MEETING
NATIONAL INSULATION MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION
Chicago, Ill. March 8, 1962
Glass Section

The meeting was called to order with the following in attendance:

C. E. Ernst, Chairman
W. Gubar
R. L. Schneider
J. M. Barnhart

Johns-Manville Sales Corp.
Gustin-Bacon Mfg. Company
Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corp.
NIMA

PRODUCT IDENTIFICATION

It was reiterated that NIMA had established a method of identifying flexible blanket insulation. It was reported that two manufacturers have given up marking the blanket due to its ineffectiveness in preventing an individual from substituting blankets of different density than those specified.

This subject will be dropped from the Agenda of future meetings.

USE OF FIRE RESISTANT JACKETS FOR DUAL TEMPERATURE APPLICATIONS

It was reported that evidences of corrosion has been found on the aluminum of fire resistant type jackets used on pipe insulation in dual temperature applications.

Gustin-Bacon, Johns-Manville and Owens-Corning are evaluating these jackets in their laboratories. Reports on the evaluations will be made at future meetings.

O.D.'S OF FIBROUS GLASS PIPE INSULATION

The Table, dated 7/7/61 was approved and will be given to ASTM C-16 Subcommittee T-8 for consideration.

PERFORMANCE STANDARD FOR FACINGS

This has not as yet been completed. The subject will be placed on the Agenda for the next meeting.

REVISIONS TO MILITARY SPECIFICATIONS

Comments have been received on the proposed revisions to MIL-I-22023. These comments will be forwarded to the Bureau of Ships in Washington, D. C., for consideration.

Proposed revisions to MIL-I-742 will be circulated to the Committee for approval and/or comment.

DUCT LINER SPECIFICATION

A copy of the proposed specification will be sent to the Rock & Slag and Glass Section for comment.

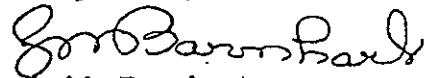

PACKAGING

It was recommended that the subject of packaging for domestic and export shipping be investigated.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted

J. M. Barnhart
