Subject: meeting follow up/WOTUS article

Hi Michael and James,

Thanks again for meeting with us last week!

I wanted to pass along Bill's latest writing, on WOTUS and market-based environmental solutions. It highlights a study we co-authored with the Center for American Progress on how private investment could be leveraged for conservation.

Bill's post: <http://www.rstreet.org/2018/02/09/epa-enters-new-phase-over-wotus-enviro-markets-are-a-better-solution-to-the-problem/>

This was just a quick blog post, but Bill is regularly published in outlets like The Hill and RealClearEnergy.

We'd love to schedule a follow-up meeting with the rest of our comms team, let us know when we can get something on the calendar!

Best,
Margaret
